COVERS RICHEST GOLD AREA IN CALIFORNIA

Vol. 14, No. 58. The County Seat Paper NEVADA CITY, CALIFORNIA, The Gold Center MONDAY, JULY 22, 1940.

From the Californian, March 15, 1848:
The Liberty of the Press consists in the right to publish the Truth, with good motives and for justifiable ends. —Alexander Hamilton.

Thinking Out Loud

By H. M. L.

Both conventions of the two great political parties have finished their business for another four years. Wendell Willkie's desire to "meet the champ" has been gratified. The President, breaker of precedents, now confronts the greatest precedent of all. Will he break it? Millions of voters are asking whether the Democraitc donkey can hurdle the third term tradition. The fact that a boss-ridden convention, a large percentage of whom were Federal office holders, selected Mr. Roosevelt as their standard bearer for the third time, is not an answer. The answer lies in the conscience of American voters. They will say whether any man, especially one who has built up the greatest political machine in American history, should be trusted for twelve years to rule his country, exercising powers, which he, himself, acting upon a subservient Congress, avidly seized.

President Roosevelt has discarded another handy and useful tool, James Farley, Chairman of the National Democratic committee. Or, possibly it would be more descriptive to say that he has worn out another tool and has negligently failed to renew its usefulness. Or, it may be better put, perhaps, to say that the President abused this faithful adjunct of presidential power by hurtful references to his political disability due to his religion. That may have been, and we suspect it was, the last careless, negligent affront that made genial Jim Farley give over an office that he loved.

When we consider the performance of our own Governor, the "Honorable" Culbert L. Olson, yawping over the long distance phone, Chicago to Sacramento, in an attempt to wheedle Lieutenant Governor Patterson into quitting office, so that Olson could accept the U. S. vice presidency nomination, we wonder what the other delegates were like. Even shilly-shally Patterson, whose political principles are as patched and evil smelling as a hobo's blanket, refused the bait of an appointment to the superior bench. The astonishing thing is that Olson should have felt any delicacy in resigning the state government to Patterson. Was there in Olson some residue, some atrophied remnant of respect for the people of California who made him their governor?

But of course there were in Chicago some honorable men who fought the good fight of country before party. There were phrases in the Bankhead speech which echoed from the higher mountains of the country's great history. Mrs. Roosevelt's address, acknowledging the indebtedness of the Democratic party to Jim Farley, attained at moments an inspirational plane. Her address we think was the best from the standpoint of sincerity and patriotism.

Of course, we quarrel with the President's vainglorious assumption that he, alone, is the only American who can see us through the troubled years ahead. We are skeptical of self-proclaimed Messiahs. The President has not a single miracle to his credit. His record is one of broken promises and failures. The "forgotten man" after seven and a half years is still forgotten and without a job. The billions which have been spent to restore the self-respect of idle Americans and to put them to work, will be a tax burden on the people even unto the third and fourth generation. The more the people must pay to the government the less they have to expend in all those activities which give employment and increase national wealth.

Actually there were many men in the Democratic party who had the ability to step into Mr. Roosevelt's shoes and probably, without the help of a long train of hired-and-dismissed brain trusters, could do a better job than he has done. Wheeler of Montana, is such a man. Sumner of Texas, Byrd of Virginia, Tydings of Maryland, and Bankhead of Alabama, are others. We do not mention Garner or Hull, or Glass, because these men are too old with the faults of the aged. But of course the real objection from standpoint of the President, to such men as Wheeler, is that they are Democrats

Boy Scouts Fight Fire At Pahatsi

Scouts Credited With Saving Lodge From Burning In Morning Blaze

Camp Pahatsi, Tahoe Area Council Boy Scout summer camp, was saved from total destruction by fire early Saturday morning when approximately 80 boy scouts vacationing there organized a bucket brigade to help extinguish the blaze, which started from spontaneous combustion in the oil house.

The scouts, courageously meeting the situation, prevented the fire from reaching the tent houses and the lodge hall. The flames destroyed the oil house, a tool shed containing a large supply of new tools and several piles of lumber, causing an estimated damage of $1,500.

The fire broke out at 4:15 a. m. Cecil H. Klee, Nevada City Elementary School principal and resident director at Camp Pahatsi, organized the boys immediately to combat the blaze.

The work of the scouts, augmented by Tahoe National Forest Service fire fighting crews, resulted in the control of the flames before they reached the lodge hall.

The majority of the scouts at the camp were from Placer County but many Grass Valley and Nevada City scouts were at the camp.

Among the Nevada City scouts assisting in the fire fighting were Bill Hatch, Jr., Gene Hatch and Tom Maguire, Jr.

The fire is not expected to interfere with the summer camping plan at Pahatsi, which was established several years ago by the Tahoe Area Council.

RAPE ACCUSATION DENIED BY SILVA

Frank Silva, 64, was bound over to the superior court to stand trial on a charge of rape at his preliminary hearing before Justice of the Peace George Gildersleeve here.

Silva is accused of an offense against a 14 year old girl, who has borne a child. The defendant emphatically denies the accusation. In support of his denial, the girl's father and brother testified in his behalf at the preliminary hearing, stating the girl and Silva were never alone on the fishing trip during which the attack is alleged to have taken place. Silva is free under bond pending his trial.

NEW FLORESCENT LIGHT TESTED IN SHOW WINDOW

Business men in Nevada County who take pride in their display windows would do well to inspect the two show windows of the Foote Electrical company in Grass Valley, some evening. In one window are the old electric lights aggregating a total of 375 kilowatts, and in the other are two florescent lamps of 4 kilowatts each, a total of 80 kilowatts.

The florescent lamps give a soft, clear, bright light bringing out the true color of all objects in the window, but without glare or shadows. As compared with the window lighted with the old incandescent bulbs the florescent lights actually approximate the brightness of daylight. And this is attained with only a third of the current used in the window lighted by the old-style lamps, reflected of course in lighting bills.

Florescent lamps are long and tubular and the light is due to electric current acting on gas in the tubes.

ONLY ONE NUGGET IN ASSEMBLY DISTRICT

According to Allen G. Thurman, who represents this county in the state assembly, there are 29 weekly daily and semi-weekly newspapers published in the Sixth assembly district. Oddly enough, there are only two set of newspapers which bear the same name. There are two Independents and two Democrats. The other 25 newspapers all bear different names.

The only "Nugget" published in the ten mining counties of the district is the Nevada City Nugget.

Assemblyman Thurman reads all of the 29 newspapers, which includes his own, the Colfax Record, which he has published for the past twenty years.

NEVADA CITYAN FINED FOR RECKLESS DRIVING

A fine of $25 was imposed upon George Lloyd of Nevada City in the Grass Valley justice court when he pleaded guilty to a charge of reckless driving, brought against him after the automobile he was driving left the highway above Hills Flat and crashed through the fence in front of the W. W. Esterly home.

The accident occurred early Saturday morning. Highway patrol officers said it was miraculous Lloyd and an unidentified companion escaped death or serious injury. Lloyd's companion fled before the arrival of officers.

Robt. Wear To Appear Into Court

Week's Development In Case Will Include Inquest By Coroner

An inquest in the death of Jerry Wear, 62, and a preliminary hearing on a murder charge for his brother, Robert, 56, will mark the week's developments in Nevada County's alleged fratricide.

The preliminary hearing for Robert, who is accused by the Nevada County officers of inflicting he skull fracture which caused the death of his brother, will be held at 10 a. m. Thursday before Justice of the Peace Charles Morehouse in Grass Valley.

Coroner A. M. Holmes has decided he will not hold the inquest into Jerry's death until after the preliminary. The inquest is expected to be held the latter part of the week.

The investigation which led to the arrest of Robert for the fratricide began after county hospital authorities were informed Jerry had been struck on the head with a half gallon jug during an argument with his brother. The information came after an autopsy by Dr. Harry Benteen revealed death was due to a skull fracture.

The brother, held in the county jail here, denies the accusation, stating his brother suffered the injury in a fall against a tree.

The injury which caused Jerry's death occurred June 10th. It was not until June 15th he was taken to the county hospital. He died on June 30.

MANDAMUS SUIT HEARD BY JUDGE IN DOWNIEVILLE

The mandamus action of C. W. Robbins, Downieville justice of the peace, against Mrs. Margaret Elaine Lambert, county treasurer, was heard before Superior Judge J. O. Moncur of Plumas County in Downieville Saturday. Robbins is suing the treasurer for $65 as his salary for February, 1940.

Moncur took the case under advisement after requesting counsel to submit authorities.

Robbins was appointed during the summer of 1939 to succeed Carle D. Ross, whose salary had been set by the board of supervisors at $15 per month. Ross resigned on account of the small salary. After paying several warrants to Robbins at the increased salary, Mrs. Lambert, on the advice of her bonding company, refused to honor Robbins' February warrant on the theory that an official's salary cannoto be increased during his incumbency.

Minister Arrives, Leaves—

Rev. H. Thomas Pateman, pastor of the Trinity Episcopal Church, has returned to Berkeley to resume his studies at the University of California Summer School, after preaching his regular Sunday service. Pateman arrived here from Berkeley Friday night.

FIVE DAYS SILENCE FOR TOO MUCH TALK

The bad habit of talking too much landed James M. Quinn, 32, in the county jail here for five days.

Everything would have been all right if Quinn hadn't said anything about a hit and run driver forcing him off the Auburn Highway near death curve. But Quinn, when brought to the county hospital here for treatment of severe head injuries, talked long and loud of another car deliberately forcing his machine from the highway against an embankment.

This, of course, led the California Highway Patrol to investigate because one thing Captain Joseph Blake and his boys want to do is to keep the highways safe from "road hogs" and hit-run drivers.

The investigation, made by Patrolman Arthur Barrick, disclosed the material facts did not coincide with Quinn's story. Confronted by Barrick, Quinn confessed his story was a fabrication.

So the blame for the accident has been lifted from the shoulders of an unidentified motorist and Quinn is serving a five day "reflect" sentence He was charged with careless driving; he had been drinking.

Supporters Of Willkie To Gather

Non - Partisan Organization Will Be Formulated To Campaign Here

Wendell Willkie supporters will gather in the National Hotel here at 8 o'clock Wednesday night to map plans for an extensive campaign in this area in behalf of his candidacy for president of the United States.

The organization to be formed at the meeting will be the result of the spontaneous enthusiasm evinced in Willkie's candidacy since his nomination for the presidency.

The tentative name of Willkie Non-Partisan Volunteers has been selected for the organization, which will have members from all walks of life, regardless of party affiliation. Further discussion of a name will take place at the Wednesday night meeting.

Local supporters of Willkie have expressed the opinion each community should have its own organization of Willkie Volunteers and that in addition county wide groups should be formed, these to affiliate with similar organizations throughout the state.

Plans for the local Willkie organization were started at a meeting last Wednesday night at the home of H. M. Leete. Those who attended the meeting were Myers Mobley, Carroll Coughlan, Robert Paine, H. P. Davis, Ed. C. Uren, George Hallock, Frank Crampton, Jack Widauf, H. M. Leete, Hal Draper and Luther Marsh.

NEVADA COUNTY PIONEER DIES

Death last night claimed Charles Smith, 82, one of the few remaining pioneers of lower Nevada County. Smith died in Grass Valley in the Landis Clinic where he had been confined by illness for ten days.

The funeral services for the deceased will be held at 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon at the Hooper-Weaver Mortuary, Inc., in Grass Valley with Rev. Mark Pike of the Methodist Church officiating. Interment will be in the Union Cemetery in Lime Kiln.

Smith, born and reared in the Lime Kiln district, followed ranching and teaming his entire life.

SATURDAY BANK HOUR SCHEDULE RESUMED HERE

The Nevada City Branch, Bank of America, Saturday resumed its former schedule of remaining open between the hours of 10 A. M. and 12 noon on the last day of the week. The bank here as well as the two branches in Grass Valley, had been closed all day Saturdays since June first.

In issuing a statement announcing the banks will henceforth remain open for two hours on Saturdays, E. M. Rector, manager of the Grass Valley branches and vice president of the Bank of America, said banking hours should be consonant with the service reasonably expected by local people.

The resumption of the old Saturday schedule, Rector said, will enable Nevada City and Grass Valley people to enjoy banking hour service equal to or more favorable than that prevailing in nearby communities.

"Chiefly U. S."

Vacations are a typically American activity. No other nation makes such a point of them. In fact, if you look in the dictionary at the word you'll find a little notation after one definition which reads simply: "Chiefly U. S."

Americans have built up a system where they can produce a lot of goods and services and still find time for the joys and pleasures of life. We now spend close to ten billion dollars a year just for amusement and recreation.

And we have the time as well as the opportunity to have holiday fun. In industry, for example, one out of every three working hours has become leisure time since 1890.

It makes an appealing picture in this, the "good old summer time"—millions of men, women and children at the beach, in the mountains, driving around in their cars exploring the country. It's something not matched in any other part of the world. And it's part of the American pattern—made possible by our business habits and abilities and based upon our traditional freedoms—a pattern we'll do well to preserve! —Contributed.

Losses Too

"We hear much about the profit motive. Some people speak of it as something sinister.

"Profit is the aim of the capitalistic system. Everybody understands that. But few understand, or acknowledge, that the capitalistic system also takes losses.

"Under the capitalistic system the rewards or losses go to those who voluntarily assume the risk of a venture; but when the government puts its money into an undertaking, the profits or losses are distributed among all the citizens.

"An unprofitable private undertaking usually comes to a quick ending, but an unprofitable government venture may continue endlessly because, for political reasons, there may be no one to call a halt.

"For this reason, private capitalism is the only system that has ever worked well in the long run. It isn't the perfect system, but it is the only one we know of that works.—Contributed.

Maine Yields To California

Even before the presidential rivals have squared away for their four-month battle, the key position of California in the November election is evident. Time was when staid old Maine held the spotlight for political prognosticators. But the slogan, "As Maine goes, so goes the nation," is as dead as Bryan's free silver issue. Maine, in that respect, has yielded to California. Many political observers in the East and Middle West already are basing a growing conviction that the G. O. P. will stage a vigorous comeback and that the race of elephant and donkey for the White House will be neck and neck and decided in a photo finish, on the circumstances that California is now listed in various samplings of public opinion as having suddenly veered from "definitely Democratic" to "doubtful." There is sound reason for taking California opinion seriously on a national scale. Californians are virtually free of the traditional political dogmas that characterize voters of, say, the deep South or New England.

California opinion is flexible, liberal and alert—and has reflected national trends so accurately that in the last ten presidential elections this state has voted with the winner nine times!

The swing of California from strongly New Deal to the doubtful attests the astonishing swiftness of Wendell Willkie's rise to popularity and confidence. The man's very unorthodoxy—his forthrightness in declaring himself on all issues, his disdain of political hedging, his blunt refusal to trade commitments for political advantages—smacks of the ruggedness of the pioneer West. And, since no President has been elected since 1912 without the vote of California, only the candidates themselves will be studied more closely than California public opinion as the campaign develops. The best bet in politics just now seems: As California goes in 1940—so goes the nation. —Contributed.

NINETEEN IN COUNTY GIVEN AID FOR BLIND

$343,882.11 were spent by California counties for aid to the needy blind in June 1940. An average payment of $48.2 per month was made to 7,161 recipients.

These payments represent a combination of federal, state and county funds, according to a statement released today by Martha A. Chickering director of the State Department of Social Welfare.

In Nevada County 19 recipients received the total of $590.

The statement issued by the State Department of Social Welfare reveals that California has almost twice as man blind aid recipients as any other state in the Union.

BOYS AND GIRLS BUSY ALL DAY IN PIONEERS PARK

The Nevada City Coordinating Council's recreation program at Pioneer Park is in its fifth week, with activities running smoothly.

Last Monday several hundred persons enjoyed the first of the evening programs sponsored by the recreation committee. The entertainment was provided by the Columbia Park Boys Club, which is encamped at Lake Olympia, and was composed of plays, short skits, musical numbers, concluding with an excellent exhibition of tumbling.

The public is cordially invited Friday night to the weekly dance at Seaman's Lodge. This will be the fifth dance and if one can judge from the enthusiasm, many of Nevada City's young folks certainly spend an enjoyable evening at the dances.

The first game of the Grass Valley-Nevada City Playground Baseball League played last week but due to lack of practice space the boys were unable to hold many workouts and consequently felt the need o more practice sessions. Games will be played in Grass Valley and Nevada City during the remainder of the season.

In addition, a softball league has been organized for boys up to 14 years and it is hoped that many boys respond so that several teams can be organized.

In the class activities Mrs. D. S. Bonebreak's arts and crafts and Mrs. Mabel Flindt's nature study have been the most popular. At present the arts and crafts class is pouring plaster molds and before long many of the members will have some excellent placques to show for their efforts.

Bonnie Flindt is also conducting an excellent and worthwhile class. Youngsters, who for some reason or other do not want to learn to swim with the Red Cross classes, can enroll in a class conducted every morning at 10:30 a. m. The class has just gotten under way and Miss Flindt reports quite a lot of enthusiasm.

Director Ed Frantz says that there is something to do for everyone throughout the day and aso sends in a request for games, magazines and books. Anyone who has any of these to give to the playground should get in touch with Frantz at Pioneer Park.

TAHOE FOREST OFFERS TRAINING FOR YOUNG

Young men and women with ability have an excellent opportunity of securing valuable experience in skilled occupations in the offices and the shops of the Tahoe National Forest and earn money at the same time, according to Guerdon Ellis, forest supervisor.

This can be had, Ellis states through the National Youth Administration. Charles T. Brier, NYA Administrator at Marysville, states that applicants need only to be between the ages of 18 and 25, being in need of employment citnzens of the United States and willing to take the oath of allegiance.

The NYA exists to help youths into gainful occupations. Recently Miss Lorraine Harry, a graduate of Mt. St. Mary's Business School at Grass Valley, was assigned by the NYA to the Forest Offices in Nevada City and is making very good progress, according to Ellis.

This opportunity is available, not only in Nevada City, but at the District Ranger Headquarters at Cisco, Truckee, Sierraville, Downieville, Camptonville and Foresthill.

and not New Dealers.

We note that a Gallup poll now gives President Roosevelt a 53 to 47 advantage at the moment over Wendell Willkie. We believe that as these polls are taken from time to time, Willkie will gradually overcome this handicap and finally defeat the New Deal in November. This is just an opinion. But it is based on the theory that a New Deal, in time, becomes an Old Deal. In its youth we may grant the New Deal had ideals and the aspiration to be of great national service. But the maggots got into the cheese. Billions for relief led to the degradation and pauperization of hundreds of thousands of of voters, who slavishly sell their ballots for New Deal bread. The attempt to lift the status of labor to the dignity and security that by tradition and right belongs to all American citizens, was done in so bungling a fashion, that the flotsam of a great population, visionaries, communists and mental defectives, rushed into overturn the nation's industrial structure.

The New Deal is now the Old Deal. In its promising youth it was tempted with too much easy money, "other people's money." Its high ideals have been smirched and distorted by the unworthy and the faithless. Greed of power and of pelf has turned that fair New Deal countenance into the seamy, leering fact of a hag, the Old Deal, which in history, will hobnob with the Harding administration.

GROUND SCHOOL FOR AVIATORS AT PLACER JR.

Requirements include the ability to pass a prescribed physical examination and successfully complete the ground school course among the ten highest of the completing class.

The ground school course will be conducted at the Placer Junior College under the supervision of Dr. J. H. Napier, director of civilian pilot training and will be taught by William F. Woolley, aviation ground school instructor at the Placer Junior College.

In order to justify the assignment of a non-college civilian pilot training unit at any institution at least twenty five eligible students must make formal application for such training. The necessary application blanks and detailed information may be obtained by calling in person at the adminitration building of the Placer Union High School from 8:30 A. M. to 5 P. M.. daily or 7:30 P. M. to 10 P. M., Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday.

CHAMBER TO ASK 4-LANE HIGHWAY

H. F. Sofge, secretary of the local chamber of commerce, will attend the Sacramento Valley Council Chamber of Commerce Highway Committee in Chico tomorrow.

Sofge will call to the committee's attention the local chamber's recommendations regarding Nevada County highway improvements, which are a four lane highway between Grass Valley and Nevada City and the elimination of the bad section of the Tahoe-Ukiah in Bear Valley. He will also tell of plans to make the Tahoe-Ukiah a secondary military highway.

The chamber of commerce has been receiving many inquiries on the vacation advantages of this area. Some of the letters come from Southern California and as far north as Oregon.

LOCAL NINE WINS FOOTHILL GAME FROM T. VALLEY

Nevada City won a 14 to 11 slugfest from the Todds Valley nine in a Foothill League game at Cashin's here yesterday afternoon. The victory was the first in the second half for the local team, which captured second place in the first half.

The locals pounced on Todds Valley for five runs in the first inning. The visitors, however, evened the score with a seven run rally in the 6th but Nevada City came right back to push over a tally in the last half of the 6th and another in the 7th for the margin of victory.

A peculiar part of the game was that Nevada City made 11 errors and was still able to win. Alex McKenzie pitched good ball in the pinches.

Jack Blomquist, just recovering from an illness, made five bobbles but his hitting figured prominently in most of Nevada City's scoring. Blomquist got three bingles; Dib Williams 2; Mel Stinson 1; Herb Costa 2; Jim Youngman 3; Dick Keene 2; Richard Biggs 2 and McKenzie 1.

The score:	R.	H.	E.
Nevada City	14	16	11
Todds Valley	11	12	5

Batteries: McKenzie and Stinson, Perry; Goldsberry, D. Drone and L. Drone, Porter.

GAME ENLIVENED BY FIST FIGHT; NO ONE INJURED

A fist fight between Ned Fusaro, Grass Valley thirdbaseman and Nick Samborsky, Woodland pitcher, marked the Sacramento Valley League battle between the two teams in Watt Park in Grass Valley yesterday afternoon. Incidentally, the Miners won the game by a score of 13 to 7.

The fight developed when Samborsky, who had been having trouble in locating the plate all afternoon, dusted Fusaro off. Fusaro demanded of Samborsky whether the duster was thrown purposely and the Woodland pitcher reportedly replied in the affirmative. Fusaro slugged Samborsky, who immediately slapped a headlock on the fiery thirdbaseman and players and umpires interfered before much damage could be done. Fusaro was ousted from the game by the umpires.

Getting back to the contest itself the Miners made sure of victory with a seven run outburst in the 4th inning. Syl Gregory with three hits, Dick Hoskins, George Cooper, Marz Dutra, Charles Lamphier and Manager Archie Campbell with two hits each, led the attack on Woodland.

The victory still gives Grass Valley a chance to win the second half flag. Chico assumed the to position with a 7 to 0 victory over Redding yesterday. In the other valley league game, Yuba City knocked over Marysville 2 to 1.

The Grass Valley-Woodland score:

	R.	H.	E.
Grass Valley	13	14	4
Woodland	7	9	1

Batteries: Campbell and Brock; Samborsky, Kirtlan and King.
